Part I. Questions:

1. Why were you unable to meet the minimum criteria (e.g. illness, problems with a child, financial emergency, unusually difficult curriculum)?

2. How did you deal with the problem?

3. Did you contact your financial aid officer for help with the problem in the timeframe that the problem commenced?

Yes ____ No ____

If so, how were they helpful?

Part II: Other Required Information

In addition to your submission of this form with your renewal application, your financial aid officer must provide the following information and you must also put it in your sealed renewal form envelope:

1. A signed statement by your financial aid officer of whether or not and when you contacted them to inform them of the problem that kept you from meeting the minimum criteria, what steps were taken to address the problem and, if you followed through on any commitments made to the financial aid officer.
2. A statement by you as to why you feel you are now better able to continue with your education and meet the minimum criteria going forward.

Part III: Student Certification, Release and Agreement

If your appeal is approved, you agree to do the following within 15 days of notification that your scholarship has been renewed.

1. Meet with your financial aid officer and agree upon a plan that will allow you to meet the minimum criteria going forward. The plan must be in writing and signed by you and your advisor. It must contain a commitment to notify your financial aid officer immediately, if you feel, for any reason, you will be unable to fulfill the written agreement.
